WOULD YOU BE A GREAT MENTOR?

The Parent Mentor Orientation Training is for parents who have experience navigating systems and understand the unique experience of raising a child with a disability, mental health challenge, or special healthcare need.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Since 1985, FSN has connected parents to volunteer parents who are uniquely qualified to help because of shared experiences, and are trained to offer support in meaningful ways for families undergoing a new diagnosis, transition, or crisis. FSN's Parent Mentor Orientation Training offers volunteer parents the tools they need to support others and become an official FSN Parent Mentor.

This training is offered in partnership between:
